NEW YORK PLAYERS MANAGE TO PULL OUT A VICTORY.

The Local Club Again in Fifth Place-Cincinnatis Defeat the Brooklyns by One Ron-Bostons Find the Clevelands Easy Prey-Philadelphias Beat St. Louis-Notes Yesterday's victory over the Chicagos was of the utmost importance to the New York players, as it placed them in fifth place, while their nents were forced back again to the rear and of the first division. The Cincinnatis had eonsiderable trouble before they succeeded in beating the Brooklyns, and Ewing's men still retain about the same lead over the Bostons. who had an easy time with the wandering Cleveland players. The usual defeat was administered to the St. Louis team, the Philadelphias gaining the victory. Rain prevented the games scheduled to be played at Baltimore and Washington. The results:

NEW YORK, 4; CHICAGO, 3. The New Yorks did not win from the Chicagos resterday at the Polo Grounds because of superior ball playing, but for the reason that they enjoyed an extraordinary spell of good luck at almost every critical stage of a poorly played game. Calinhan held them down to five singles, only one of which could be called clean. But his support was poor, all of the locals runs being due to scorable misplays. Ruste on the cher hand was fouched up with considerable freedom, the visitors making twelve drives off his curves, yet finding it a rather difficult task to bunch them. The fielding behind the big fellow was nothing remarkable, two of Chicago's runs being due to blunders by Van Haltren, Davis, and Joyce.

to bunch the state of the state

A moment later Joyce was thrown out at the plate.

Another run was chalked up for the Chicagos in the third, created by Thornton's force of Everitt, Dahlen's base on balls and a two-bagger by Metformick. Mertes, who was hit by a pitched ball, filled the bases, but the runners were left. In the last haif of the fourth the New Yorks began to show that luck was with them by seering twice when they would have been blanked if Thornton had not muffed an easy fly. This schoolboy error permitted flavis to reach first as a starter and Gleason received four balls. Doyle sacrificed and Hartman was retired on a grounder to Connor which should have been third out, but which permitted Davis to cross the plate. Warner said that he had been hit with a pitched ball and got his base, whereupon he promptly stole second. Dahlen made a poor return of the catcher's throw to the plate and Gleason was safe with the second run. Then Rusie was thrown out on a tap to Callahan, who was certainly in lard luck.

out on a tap to Callahan, who was certainly in liard luck.

Dahlen was declared out on strikes in the fifth and became sour. For a volley of uncomplimentary remarks he was very properly ejected from the game and obeyed with very lad grace. Isbell took his place and made some fine plays in the sixth luning.

Mertes opened the eighth with a three-bagger. Connor fouled out, and Donahue hit to Davis. The latter not only missed a chance to shut off Mertes at the plate by fumbling the lall, but Donahue was also safe at first on Joyce's muff. Callahan forced Donahue, and with the score ted flyan hit the ball far down the field toward the ropes. Doyle, however, got under the smash, and made a superb catch that drew plenty of spiplause from the 1,500 spectators present. It saved the day, and the cranks smiling their way.

all agreed that Dame Fortune was certainly smilling their way.

The game was won in the ninth inning in a was that further convinced the crowd that the New Yorks must have discovered some new licky charm during their travels in the West. Warner, after striking at two wide balls, partly dedged away from another fast one. As he did so the ball hit his bat and went twisting into fair ground just over Connor's head. It was the seratchiest kind of a hit and the crowd haughed. Rusie struck out and Warner stole second, Donahue making no attempt to throw. Van Haltren then made another scratch hit, the fifth hit secured off Callahan, which was in the shape of a slow bounder that Isbell couldn't field for an out. Tiernan came next with a grounder to Isbell, and as the latter threw the ball hysterically past Donahue to the New Yorks' bench Warner scored the winning

When the last Cincinnati player had been retired vesterday at Washington Park, Kennedy taking it for granted that the home team would lose and that he would probably not get another chance to hit the ball, made a beeline for the dressing room. OWNERS MUST PAY 10 PER CENT. OF FIRST MONEY FOR SCRATCHING.

Roundsman, the Pavorite, Is Downed in the Opening Race by Rightaway-Martha II. Finishes by Only a Nose After Getting Two Lengths the Best of the Start. Saratoga, Aug. 12.-The women folks had cause for complaint at the treatment they re-ceived at the hands of the Saratoga Association to-day. The announcement in the local papers that this would be Ladies' Day brought out a big crowd of the fair sex, many of them coming in from neighboring places. When they reached the track they were notified that it was not a free day and that they would have to pay to get inside. Quite a number could not afford to do this and had to return home disappointed, but the greater part of them gave up the necessary dollar.

The association made a new rule to-day, which worked well. It was to the effect that if any owner scratched he would have to pay 10 per cent, of the first money, the scratching fee to go to the race fund. The result was that Twinkler. Roundsman was made the favorite in the opening race. Condition told favor of Rightaway, who won easily by a length and a half. Cacique, John Mca length and a half. Cacique, John Mc-Cafferty's entry, broke down in the stretch. In the second race, for maiden two-year-olds, Garrabrant, with Maher up, was the favorite. Bettie Gray, however, won in a drive. The first favorite to win was Martha II., in the third race, but her backers can thank Starter Byrnes for it, as she got two lengths the best of the start and then won by only a nose. Ahom, the favorite for the fourth race, kept up the good work by winning from a poor lot of two-year-olds. His backers, however, were fortunate that Irving, rider of Boysterer, who finished second, did not enter a protest, as the winner fouled Roysterer in the last sixteenth of a mile.

There were eleven starters in the last event. George B. Cox was the talent's choice, but he was never in the race. The winner was the good thing Ma Angeline, ridden by Danny Maher, who led all the way and won in a drive from Nigger Baby. Summaries:

According to the official report made yesterday, the heavy roads will be much improved with clear weather to-day and to-morrow. Even with hot weather dusty roads will be rare. Probably never before has the asphalt system in Manhattan and the annexed district been so much obstructed as at the present time. Owing to the construction of trolley systems on Sixth and Eighth avenues crosstown connections on the west side between Forty-seventh and Twenty-second streets are sadly interfered with. As a cycling route Eighth avenue is now almost useless below Fifty-nint street. The opportunities for crossing it on asphalt streets are miserable. Untown, Eighth avenue is now almost useless below Fifty-nint street. The opportunities for crossing it on asphalt streets are miserable. Untown, Eighth avenue is asphalted on its east side from 155th to 152d street. Many of the popular asphalt routes of the city are obstructed on one side or the other by building material. Some very strong compilatus are being made about the blocking of the asphalt strips on Hudson street by trucks, so as to render them unridable. Wheelmen coming down on the west side to South Ferry can make a detour which will save them nearly one-half the distance over the Hudson street strips by taking Fifth avenue to Washington Square, going around the square to Waverley place, then west to Macdougal street, south to Spring street and out to Hudson street again. Fifth avenue at 110th street, 114th, 118th, 119th street, and Eighth avenue at 240th street, are in the same condition. On Park avenue and St. Nicholas avenue, near 140th street, are in the same condition, on Park avenue and St. Nicholas avenue, a hear 140th street, are in the same condition owing to the repairs in progress. Convent avenue is being repaired and cyclists should use caution when riding the street, from the Malison avenue bridge is being the proper f in excellent condition. On Staten Island and in New Jersey the roads are decidedly heavy, and even with clear weather the good riding will be in streaks. Crescent avenue in Plainfield, from Park avenue to Natchung avenue, is being coated with cracked stones. The roads of Newark, Millburn, Orange, Hackettstown, Washington, Passaic and Trenton are good. The Paterson plank road is still in the hands of the contractor. The roads to Nyack are apt to be soft, and to Cornwall and Newburg fair. About Ulster Park the thoroughfares are very muddy.

A woman yesterday gave an illustration of perils encountered by cyclists on the bridge. The ears were keeping well apart and drivers of light wagens were taking advantage of the fact to switch over on the tracks in order to go fast and pass the heavier and slower going trucks. The wheelwoman pulled in front of a trolley car only to find her progress blocked by a delivery wagen that dodged in front of her. Turning out again she encountered another wagen and was forced to a hasty dismount. She mounted and dismounted four or five times in a short distance because of cither a car or wagen. Several times she came near falling, and those who were witnesses of her troubles were kept in momentary fear of seeing her run over. Finally she gave it up and resigned herself to walking across.

Three Englishmen, Francis H. Lowe, S. E. Lumm, and J. F. Fraser, who have ridden around the world under most remarkable conditions, arrived in New York last night. The remarkable part of their journey was that it was performed, not for money, advertising, or fame, but solely for pleasure. They do not care about telling any one what kind of wheels or thres they rode. They are all young men, residents of London, for which place they leave on Wednesday. Thoy left London on July 17, 1830, and have ridden 10,237 miles, exclusive of train travel and waiking.

At the Manbattan Beach track this afternoon Eddie McDuffee will meet Edouard Taylore is a paced race at twenty-five miles. Each will be limited to twenty-five pacemakers. This small number of pacers is due to the fact that one of McDuffee's "quint" crews has been weakened by the loss of the steersman. McDuffee and Taylore have been on the track for several days and making fast time in practice work. work.

NEWPORT, Aug. 12.—There was an interesting race this afternoon between the 30-footers for won by Pembrooke Jones's Carolina, sailed by Capt. Seaman. The wind was from the southeast and the course sailed was a run up the bay to Hope Island, a distance of ten miles and a beat home. The Hern led the fleet at the outer mark, but in the windward work the Carolina soon took the lead. Summary:

FIGHTING.

Broderick Knocks Out Selloff in the Thir-

Otto Seiloff, the Chicago lightweight, was knocked out in the thirteenth round at the Lenox A. C. last night. The man who put the deciding punch on his jaw was Tom Broderick of Yonkers, who has slowly but surely been approaching the top of the heap in his class. Selloff is a powerful rusher who depends solely on wild swings with plenty of steam behind them. But in Broderick he met a pugilist who knew how to keep out of the way until the time arrived to go in and win. It was an interesting affair, full of life, hard hitting, and enough blood to satisfy the most fastidious of the short-haired fraternity.

The attendance was not up to the mark, probably because the card was not particularly attractive. Still the regulars were on off their coats either, as the building was comfortably cool. Mike Toots, a dark-skinned Italian, met Frank Patterson of trouble, too.

In the thirteenth round, after Broderick saw that the end was near, for Selloff came slowly, Otto tried his old tactics for a moment, only to find that the Yonkers man had taken his measure. They had another slugging matince, then Broderick whitped his right across on the Jaw and knocked Selloff out so cleanly that it was useless for the referee to count off the sec-

Atlantic Yacht Club Cruise.

When the New York and Larehment Yacht Clubs abandoned their cruises on account of the ear, it was thought that yachting was about dead for the season. The Atlantic Yacht Club followed by the smaller clubs, decided to go shead and earry out their usual programme a far as possible, and subsequent events seem to have justified their course. When peace was in sight, Commodere Adams and the officials of the Atlantic Yacht Club announced that, in view of the large number of yachts in commis sion, they would hold an informal cruise. Many thought that the cruise would be a failure, but vesterday when the fleet rendez voused at Larchmont Commodore Adams' yourse was fully justified, as no less than forty yacuts responded to the call. They include four schooners, fourteen sloops and fifteer steam yachts. The fleet will start at 8:30 this morning for Black fleek, and from there they will proceed to New Londou and Shelter Island. Among the yachts which will take part are the
